NOVEMBER 2011

This November is very special; we have the 11:11:11 day, and it is on the day we remember the people who passed. Not only is this day on Remembrance Day; but it is also a Full Moon. If your energy is a little low prior to this day; don't worry it will return after this small shift. I have been promised the shift will not be a huge one; though after 11.11.11 you will find the energy a bit lighter. Also on this day make a wish, write a list of what you want to receive; and most importantly send out love to all those here or passed away.

"You may be out of my sight... but never out of my mind... I Miss You!"

A Note from Debbie

“If you must love your neighbor as yourself, it is at least as fair to love yourself as your neighbor.” Nicholas De Chamfort

You may hear it all the time; be kind to yourself. It sounds so simple so then why aren't we? There are books and books about positive affirmations; and yet the majority of our thoughts are negative towards ourselves. We continually put other's needs before ours. We become tired and rundown; but yet we still don't take time for ourselves. Life is all about finding balance; finding time for ourselves and others. Giving and receiving. When we don't balance those out; our bodies become unbalanced. We become tired and drained. Say something nice to yourself as you wake up and then again before you fall asleep. And most important take at least a half hour to an hour and do something nice for yourself; going for a walk or just sitting reading your favorite book. Don't put it off as time goes by too fast.

Our store has gone through many changes in the past month; and is continually changing. We welcome Michelle Sweet as a reader; Cheryl, Char and Shahana as our storefront experts. Each of our storefront reps have different specialties; if they can't assist you they will refer you to someone who can.

On November 18 and 19 we are opened until 8pm; and we welcome you to come in and visit with our new readers and staff. We are offering free gifts from the angels (limited supply), 15 minute readings/services for only $15.00, and 10% off any purchase over $100. Soon will be offering Customer Loyalty Card. In the New Year we will be revamping our workshop schedule, and our services will be expanding to offer Raindrop Therapies, massage; and energy healing.

As we grow and expand we appreciate any feedback on what you would like to see; any services that weren't up to par; or what we are doing right. All feedback is considered confidential; but is essential to assist us to know what we are doing right or wrong, so we can quickly change.

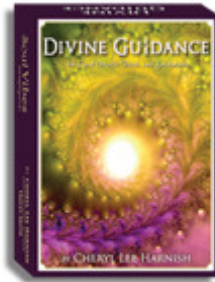

We welcome Marcia Drinkwater to our readers. She is a certified graphologist (handwriting analysis) learn about yourself and how your signature holds hidden truths about you. She also does dream therapy (interpretation).

Thank you to all our loyal customers and friends. We hope to see you on the 18th or 19th.

Card of the Month

From Divine Guidance

by Cheryl Lee Harnish

21 RECEIVING

“Energetically, you are beginning to draw in the loving people you need to help you move forward on your path and in your life. These people offer you both emotional and spiritual support – so that you may see and feel your own value in the world. Remember, you have just as much of a positive effect in their lives, as they do in yours. While what you have to give is very important, it’s just as important that you allow yourself to receive too. In doing so, you are creating a beautiful energy exchange of growth and support for all.”

Life is about balance. Even balancing your cheque book. What monies you receive has to equal the monies you pay out. Giving and receiving also has to balance out or you will either expend your energy or bottle too much up. In order to be balanced you need to learn to say yes and even no at times. You need to be gracious and allow others to do things for you. When one comes out of balance your body will feel tired; and your mind will become restless. Learn both sides and be gracious about both.

This card is to remind us to have balance in both giving and receiving. Everyone likes to receive gifts; but some of us have too much pride and think we can do everything. It is not about how capable we are; it is about allowing others to help us; like we may have helped them. When you reject help or don't ask, the energy will stop and that means your abundance could also slow down to a stop.

Crystal of the Month

Amber

“Negative Energy Dispeller.”

- Can detoxify the body from all types of radiation (sun, computers, xrays, etc.)
- Excellent healing stone – not only can take the negative energy that could be causing the illness – can transmute it into positive energy.
- Excellent stone for those who want to get pregnant. Carry it low on the waist or in your pocket.
- Attracts good luck.
- Assists in making good decisions. Hold close to your heart when try to make an important decision.
- Sleep near amber to make your dreams come true. Be clear on what you want.
- Attracts love into your life.
- Soak with amber in the tub, it will expel any negative energy you picked up or can't release.

Messages from the Otherside

The first name is for who the message is for. Hopefully I can clearly pick up a name of who it is for and who it is from. Some spirits will just say Mom, not realizing there are several Moms out there.

Andrew: We seemed to grow further and further apart; and I see now it was my fault. I couldn't see who you truly were – just who I wanted you to be. Please know that I am truly proud of you. I love you so much. Love your Dad.

Kathy: We seemed to part on bad terms; then I got sick. You were there for me. I want you to know how much I loved and appreciated what you did for me. I know you don't think it was enough, but it went above and beyond what a friend would do. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. Love always, Sarah.

Sam: I saw you sitting on that park bench, and you seemed to have the world your shoulder. Don't be afraid to take risks in life. Be who you want to be – no matter what I will be proud of you. There are no secrets up here; so you might as well be honest with everyone. I think most of them already know. Be true to yourself; and be happy. Love your Grandpa.

Neil: You are the sunshine of my life. You are the apple of my eye. Trust your feelings, and believe in yourself like I do. I didn't tell you enough when I was living, but I love you. Don't try to be like me; you will miss out on your life. I have no regrets; but your spirit was meant to soar. Let it. Don't let others hold you back. Love your Dad.

Sandy: What can I say that I haven't said a million times. I love you with all my heart and soul. I am sorry I had to leave so soon; but it is time you move on. I know you will never forget me; but you can't stop your life because mine ended. Go live your life; and know that I will always love you more and more each day. Richard.

SPECIAL OFFER:

For the month of November I will do email mediumship readings free: Send a picture of the deceased loved one; their name, birthdate, and approximately how long they have been deceased. Email me with your name and if there is a specific question you would like answered (no promises sometimes they say what they need to say – not what we need to hear) to debpaterson555@gmail.com. Please be patient as I will get through them all, it just may take a couple of weeks.

Messages from Spirit Animals

STARFISH

In Christian symbolism the Starfish represents the Virgin Mary (Stella Maris which means Star of the Sea) who lovingly creates safe travel over troubled waters and is also seen as an emblem of salvation during trying times. The star as well as the Starfish are seen as celestial symbols and as such, they represent infinite divine love. In addition to love, the Starfish also holds characteristics such as guidance, vigilance, inspiration, brilliance and intuition.

WHEN YOU SEE A STARFISH

- ❖ New opportunities are about to appear, trust your intuition about making the right choice.
- ❖ Do not listen to others; trust your own judgment.
- ❖ There is no hurry, relax and enjoy your journey.
- ❖ If you have had any recent losses, trust you'll recover and things will turn out for the best.
- ❖ Someone you know is in need of a shoulder to cry on. Beware that they are showing a brave face.
- ❖ Time to meditate on your next step. It is time for the next step; listen carefully.
